

Economic Opportunities

Build-up would increase jobs and revenues to Guam

- Construction jobs would be available and create local business opportunities
- Increases in local tax revenues due to population increase and economic activity
- Long-term jobs would support military activities and increased population